Final Steps

If you do not have 24 transferable credit hours or a 2.25 college GPA by the end of the spring semester you can take summer courses.

- Check with your community college to see when their summer classes start.
- Let your App State Bridge Advisor know by May if you will be taking summer courses at the community college.
- Work with your App State Bridge Advisor to see what classes and how many classes you will need.
- Submit a final transcript as soon as summer courses are finished.
